

WHICH END IS UP?—Rumor has it, that there is an alley down on E. 9th Street in Upland, which is posted as one way and yet on closer inspection, you can find also posted, a STOP sign for those adventurous souls daring to come the other way. Human nature being what it is, the local police showed amazing insight in so posting this alley. Rumor also has it, that there are some people who go the wrong way down this alley with the excuse that they just hate to see that STOP sign go to waste.

Hamburger cafe approved

There are still some details to be ironed out, but the basic design of the McDonald's hamburger stand, unlike the usual McDonalds, was approved by the Upland Architectural Commission.

Unanimous approval was given the cafe, which will not have any golden arches that McDonalds' stands usually have.

Approval was given the basic design conditioned on later approval of landscape plan, sign drawings, materials to be used in construction of the exterior of the building, and elimination of early American motifs over doors and windows.

The plan presented was a new design by the firm which was drawn in an attempt to meet the requirements of the commission.

It had been before the commission at an August meeting.

A lot site for the cafe to be located on Foothill between Euclid and Second Ave., has been approved by both Planning Commission and City Council.

Glazed white brick was one material to which there was objection on the commission. Member Dale Ponsor said it would look like "a giant molar sitting there."

Colonial motifs on doors and above windows wouldn't fit with the otherwise contemporary design of the building, the Commission decided. Ponsor and Chairman Jack Causey joined in suggesting unglazed brick and deleting the colonial motifs.

Causey also sought assurance that no air conditioning or other mechanical equipment would show on the roof.

Mrs. Anna LaPonis, who owns the lot next door to the west, commented from the audience that letting "this development in will lead to similar developments on the most beautiful corner.

Member Gordon Ayers and Causey both said that what went on the corner was completely out of the hands of the Commission, that it was a zoning matter.

Mrs. Nancy Colbath, member of the commission, added that without jurisdiction there was nothing that the commission could do.

There was some discussion about offices in that location, but Realtor Ralph Miller said that those interested in offices were looking more toward the Civic Center area.

Library, Fire HQ

Civic Center bids called

City Council met briefly at 5 Tuesday afternoon to authorize a call for bids on construction of the new Library and Fire Headquarters.

Those will be the first two buildings of Upland's new Civic Center. The Library will be located on Euclid Ave. and D St. and the new fire station will go up at Arrow Highway and Second Ave.

Bids will be opened at 10 a.m., Wednesday, Oct. 11. Bidders may bid on either building, or on both according to the advertisement for bids.

In order to get the new Civic Center underway as soon as possible the adjourned session was arranged for Tuesday.

Elwin Alder, city manager, recently made a flying trip to Sacramento, hand-carrying plans, to cut through red tape to get the project off the ground.

Later increments of the Civic Center will include police station and new city hall, all the buildings located in a park-like setting.

Upland schools open Monday to 9,000

Upland schools opened their doors Monday to an estimated 9,000 children in grades one through 12 and according to all reports the school year is off to a smooth start.

Total enrollment in the elementary grades is estimated at 5,666 and the high school enrolled approximately 2,287 students, with an expected 60 additional registrations.

St. Joseph's Catholic School, with grades kindergarten through eighth grade, enrolled an estimated 500 students with more to come.

There has been an increase of 235 students over last year's figures in the elementary grades, according to school officials and an increase of 138 pupils at the high school level.

The individual elementary schools showed noticeable gains and losses in enrollment, but this was due to a shifting of pupils for a more even distribution of teachers and space available.

The figures for the 1966 and 1967 enrollment at the various schools are as follows: Citrus, 540 in 1966 and 565 in 1967; Cabrillo, 680 in 1966 and 591 in 1967; Baldy View, 536 in 1966 and 552 in 1967; Foothill Knolls, 370 in 1966 and 364 in 1967; Magnolia, 543 in 1966 and 647 in 1967; Sierra Vista, 575 in 1966 and 602 in 1967; Sycamore, 464 in 1966 and 609 in 1967 and Valencia, 450 in 1966 and 497 this year.

Pioneer Junior High and Upland Junior High reported slight changes in enrollment with Pioneer registering 759 students this year as compared to 753 last year. Upland Junior High lost students with a drop from 520 last year to 480 this year.

High school principal, Thomas Glasheen, said that the census was taken at the end of the second period in the high school and that he expected an additional 60 students to register by the end of the week.

The teaching staff at the high school level totals 101, a growth of 11 teachers over last year. There has been an increase of one teacher in the elementary grades.

Marijuana possession charge faces girl, 16

An Upland High School student was arrested here Monday night, Sept. 11, and charged with the possession and use of marijuana.

Police identified her as Christy Lee Brennan, 16 year-old daughter of John Brennan of 1476 Randy St., Apt. B, and said she had approximately one half kilo, which is equivalent to over a pound of marijuana at her home when apprehended.

"This amount of the drug would produce at least 1,000 cigarettes," said police Capt. John McCarthy.

Christy, an 11th grade student at Upland High School, told police, McCarthy said, that she had intended to sell the drug to students at the high school and that this was her purpose for obtaining it. She also told them that she had been using marijuana herself since she was 14, police said.

The police stated that they had been watching Christy for the past year and were informed that she had a large quantity of the drug in her possession Monday night.

They went to the girl's home to find that her father was away and that she was being cared for by her grandparents. The grandparents gave the police permission to search the home and remove the drug.

Capt. McCarthy describes the drug and the form in which it is distributed as being "a brown-greenish looking coarse 'tobacco' which is pressed into a brick form." "This 'tobacco' is broken up and put into small tobacco cans and sold to teenagers for approximately $10 a can," said McCarthy.

Christy is now in the custody of the juvenile authorities.

Glimpse of the future

by Walt Orvis

While others are talking about the auto traffic jams around airports, and how passengers are going to get to and from super planes, Cable Commuter Airlines of Cable Airports is doing something about it.

This is the type of plane Cable will be using on its commuter runs that will fly passengers between Ontario, Lancaster and Inyokern, latter San Bernardino, to Los Angeles International Airport.

They will have no traffic jams, never fail to find a parking space, never miss a plane because of a jammed freeway.

ger DeHavilland Twin Otter, a plane built just for commuter work.

It takes off and lands in a short space as a "flivver" plane, or maybe less, with a full load of passengers.

It can fly into an airport pattern with the big jets, at their speed, drop down onto the runway and swing off that runway in the wink of an eye.

In flight, the plane will slow down, flying on one engine, until it feels almost as if you are standing still.

Engines are apparently part of the secret of the plane's take off and climbing ability. They are small turbines, making the plane a turbo-prop, that will cruise at 185.

Several plane loads of people were taken for short hops over the Pomona Valley while the plane was here.

Cable Commuter Airline expects to start operations connecting Ontario, Los Angeles, Palmdale and Inyokern Oct. 1, having verbal assurance that Public Utilities Commission approval will reach Upland by that date.

The DeHavillands might not be delivered by that time, but if not, Cable has Twin Beeches that will haul about half as many passengers, and they will be kept in service until the DeHavillands are delivered and ready.

Fads make dress code writing hard

Because of the current rapid changes in fashions from one season to the next school officials are finding it difficult to set rigid rules for school costumes.

Fads come and go and teenagers are always there with the most current "in thing." Realizing this, school officials are asking that students be "reasonable" and exercise their own integrity.

But just to be on the safe side, Upland High School has released the following school dress and grooming code for student use.

SCHOOL DRESS AND GROOMING

Because of rapid changes in styles and fashions, it is difficult to know what will be acceptable for school wear. We are offering the following guidelines to help you avoid any problems in regard to proper dress.

Boys are expected to take pride in their personal appearance, to be clean shaven, and to wear clothes that are in good taste. Regular trousers with a sport shirt is appropriate for school wear. Shirts, unless cut square around the bottom for outside wear, should be tucked in.

Shoes must be worn and a reasonable haircut is a necessity. Hair that is over the ears or eyes or extends down the neck will not meet school standards. Hair should be tapered in the back and should not extend below the collar.

For the girls, dresses and skirts and blouses are proper wear. Skirts that are no more than two inches above the knee are acceptable. Some of the styles that are not acceptable are: spaghetti-strap dresses, off-the-shoulder blouses, scarves, capris, bermudas, shorts, peddle pushers, pant dresses, and culottes which do not look like a skirt. Shoes or sandals must be worn and things are not acceptable for anyone.

The word "reasonable" is our key thought and any student whose dress is judged to be unreasonable will be asked to correct it immediately.

USC baseball teams coached by Dedeaux have won 14 CIBA championships, nine District Eight titles and three NCAA crowns in the last 17 years.

As school opens Drive carefully, teach children safety, too

With school reopening this week, Police Chief John Wessely has urged all motorists to be alert and drive safely - "Double caution is needed during the first few weeks of school because after a long summer vacation many youngsters are not as alert as they should be," said the Chief.

"If drivers will obey all traffic laws, heed all warning signs and watch out for instructions from the crossing guards, the safety of our youngsters will be insured."

"Children going to school for the first time present a special problem according to the Chief. Unlike the older children, these children have not had the benefit of the pedestrian safety program conducted in the local schools by the Police Department. "These youngsters will often dart out into the street without looking," said Wessely. "For this reason parents should acquaint their children with the basic rules of safety," he added.

"Before children are permitted to ride their bicycles to and from school, parents should insist that their children know and understand the bicycle safety rules. Motorists should be on the alert for darting bicyclists."

"Remember that a flashing red light on a parked school bus means that children are leaving the bus and will be crossing the street. The law requires that motorists bring their vehicle to a complete stop. It is illegal to pass a school bus displaying a flashing red light."

"In addition to warning their children about the traffic hazards involved in going to and from school, parents should caution their children against accepting gifts or rides from strangers," Chief Wessely advised.

The women of the Ontario Chapter are proud to be a part of this history."

CONGRESSMAN JERRY PETTIS (R-33rd Dist.) smiles for the camera while talking with constituents Friday at Red Hill Country Club in a question-answer period during which he gave some candid opinions, not complimentary, of the secretary of defense, the Johnson administration, the courts and some Negro militants. Back to camera is Chino City Administrator Richard Wright. Others from left, John Cooper, Charles Goodspeed, Pettis' assistant, Congressman Pettis, and Reed Sprinkle, who arranged the meeting.

Pettis blasts rioters, courts, LBJ

The ears of quite a few people in Washington should have been burning when Congressman Jerry Pettis (R-33rd) expressed some candid opinions while talking to a group of supporters at Red Hill Country Club late Friday afternoon.

Pettis was especially rigorous in his tongue-lashings of the President, the Supreme Court Justices, H. Rap Brown, and the Secretary of Defense.

He stated that if the "10 per cent surtax President Johnson is asking for to fight the Vietnamese War comes to the Congress tomorrow, it will not pass."

Pettis attributes Congress' balking to the attitude of the President at this time.

"You Congressman don't know what I know about Vietnam," LBJ reported to these lawmakers in the White House last week.

Pettis inquired, "If he doesn't confide in the Congress anymore, how can we make decisions regarding the War? Until he really levels with us, the Congress isn't going to give him his surtax."

Also a target for the Congressman's blasting was H. Rap Brown, black power militant.

"When you have fellows like Brown advocating the violent overthrow of our government and the burning of our cities, and who only spent eight hours in a jail, then are released, sedition is not being dealt with in the way it should."

The courts came under his rebuke for their failure to uphold anti-riot legislation. Pettis stated, "We not only have to pass anti-riot legislation, but we also need courts that will uphold them."

Then he claimed the Secretary of Defense McNamara was the only "stumbling block" to the installation of an anti-ballistic missile system in the United States. "Although we have the technology to defend ourselves against any missiles that our enemies have," Pettis said, "we are going to get caught one of these days with our enemies surrounding their cities with defenses that we can't do anything about."

On the subject of the courts, he said that he felt Congress can pass laws that even simple minded supreme court justices can understand.

Pettis may have surprised some Republican present by lauding a democrat or two. After discussing new welfare legislation that he was backing, he mentioned in answer to a comment about no such thing as a good Democrat, that one had written the bill and Democrats, outnumbering the GOP in Congress, got bills out of committee and help pass them.

PO to provide easier ZIP coding

Upland residents will have an opportunity to easily put ZIP into their mail in late September, Postmaster John W. James reported.

During the last half of September, the post office will deliver to every householder a kit of eight postal cards which can be mailed back to the post office with addresses needing ZIP Codes. Each completed card will be sent to the Post Office which services the "zipless" address and the proper code will be added before the form is returned to the sender.

No postage will be needed on these cards.

Each of the eight postal cards in the kit will contain a message encouraging the general use of ZIP Code. There will be a ninth card of instructions. All will be folded together like a closed accordion. There will be perforations between each form. In addition, another separate card will be delivered along with the kit which is a reminder of the local ZIP Code.

Last year approximately 10,000 addresses were ZIP

Coded by the Upland Post Office as part of a similar program using only one (or two) cards with spaces for as many as 13 addresses, Postmaster James said.

Nationally, about 8 addresses per card were returned during the 1966 project.

The unit cost of entering the code onto each card will be less than the system used in 1966 because no look-up will be necessary. Every card in the final post office will need the same code, so an inexperienced clerk will be able to simply stamp it on the card and send the form on its return journey.

On an average day, between 175 and 250 million new pieces of mail enter the postal system. It is not expected that more than 10 million of the ZIP-A-LIST cards will be in the system at any one time during the peak periods of mailing. Since they will be handled essentially as ordinary postal cards, there will be no burden or dislocation of service.

"The ultimate result will be an improvement in service," Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien has said about the project. "ZIP Code is the base upon which the modern postal service is being built. But, it won't work, and the modernization and efficiencies ZIP Code will bring cannot go into effect until there is more widespread usage of the five-number code."

"The ZIP-A-LIST project is the most dramatic aspect of our continuing campaign to make ZIP Codes readily available to the public." Last year, approximately 17% of the nation's householders returned 96 million addresses for coding. The Postmaster General reported that many postmasters had informed the Department that the ZIP-A-LIST project was an important aspect in making Christmas mailers aware of the importance of using the codes on their holiday mail and, as an off-shoot, encouraged early mailing of their gifts and cards. This resulted in the most successful holiday season in recent postal history.

Extra kits will be available at the post offices.

Immunization census set next week

Information about the extent to which children are immunized against smallpox, polio, measles, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus and mumps will be obtained in a survey here the week of Sept. 18, Director Leonard C. Isley of the Census Bureau Regional Office in Los Angeles announced today.

In addition, the surveyors will obtain information about employment and unemployment to be used by the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics in preparing current national figures.

The survey will be taken simultaneously in other areas of the U.S. to obtain data from a representative sample of the nation's households. All answers will be confidential, and the facts obtained will be used for statistical purposes only.

Scouts get ranch okay

SAN BERNARDINO (CNA) — Old Baldy Council, Boy Scouts of America will move ahead immediately with development of their 470 acre camp site in Holcomb Valley. Site approval was given to the council Thursday by the County Planning Commission. The land is on east and west sides of Holcomb Valley Road, south of Artec Canyon Road.

About one thousand boys will use the camp, to be divided into four areas, the Planning Commission was told. There was no opposition at the public hearing.

Thursday's unanimous approval reaffirmed approval given some four years ago, but sought again by the Council because the property was listed in the name of the previous owner when first approval was given.

Sister City search activities resumed

After a two month vacation from regular meetings, the Sister City Committee will come together at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 21 in the city council chambers. According to Chairman Zella H. Stone, the purpose of the meeting will be to resume the search for a suitable Sister City for Upland.

The decision to seek a sister in Mexico was made by the committee last spring, and several cities were given serious consideration, but were found to be already engaged in sister city activities with other California cities.

Efforts will be renewed this fall to locate some city with enough similarity to Upland to be of mutual interest to the citizens of both cities.

Upland's Committee consists of representatives of the various service clubs and civic organizations, plus several City Council appointees.

Grove Theatre sold family movies aim

Upland's Grove Theatre has recently been sold by California Sterling Theatre, Inc., to a San Francisco Theatre man, Jay Morris, who plans to operate the enterprise as a family type movie house.

The new owners took the theatre over, Wednesday, Aug. 30 and are temporarily making their home at 4370 N. Gordon St., Pomona.

When interviewed Tuesday Sept. 12, Morris said that his intention was to feature movies that the average parent would feel comfortable viewing with a 12-year-old child. He also said that he will continue with the Saturday afternoon matinee, but that no adult would be admitted unless accompanied by a child.

Admission to the theatre will remain at 50 cents and the doors will be open every evening at 7 p.m.

Mrs. Elwood Chapman, individual and special gifts chairman for the 1967 West End United Fund campaign is shown going over solicitation materials with the Rev. C. Richard Mitchell, Mrs. David L. Armstrong and Mrs. Warner Howell, individual gifts chairmen for specific sections of the City of Upland.

Individual gifts chairmen named

Appointment of Mrs. David L. Armstrong, Mrs. Warner Howell and the Rev. C. Richard Mitchell as Chairmen of Upland Individual Gifts was announced by Mrs. Elwood Chapman, individual and special gifts chairman of the 1967 campaign of the West End United Fund.

Mrs. Chapman stated, "This division of the drive is conducted on a carded basis -- and it was formerly known throughout the West End area as the Residential Division. However, during the past several years, only the homes of those residents giving $5 or more are being contacted; this new method of solicitation is due to the increased payroll deduction plan which many local firms, businesses and industries prefer."

Mrs. David L. Armstrong, 2488 Sierra Dr., Upland, is in charge of the individual gifts division located in the San Antonio Heights area. She has served as assistant Cub Scout Leader from 1966-67 with Den 5, Pack 607 of Upland as well as assisting as Sustaining Membership Enrollment Chairman for Girl Scout Troop No. 1072.

Mrs. Armstrong has been an active member of the Friday Afternoon Club for many years as well as the Assistance League of Upland. Currently she is an active member of the Las Tias Auxiliary to the Assistance League and is serving as Secretary. Mrs. Armstrong was also an active member of the Chaffey District Young Republican organization.

Mrs. Warner Howell, 1773 North San Antonio Ave., Upland, has assisted in past efforts of the former Upland Community Chest and more recently with the West End United Fund. She has served as Residential Chairman of the former Upland Community Chest also. She is a participating member of the League of Women Voters as well as the Upland Women's Club.

Mrs. Howell also served for many years in a leadership capacity of the Spanish Trails Girl Scout Council. She is in charge of the northwest section of Upland for the forthcoming West End United Fund campaign.

The Rev. C. Richard Mitchell, 869 North Euclid, Upland, is organizing the northeast section of Upland for the coming drive. He has been a participant in Parent-Teacher organizations in the Upland area having served as an active member of the Upland Junior High School, Upland High School and Upland Elementary School units.

He has held leadership roles in the Y.M.C.A., Capital Fund Drive as well as yearly membership drives. Rev. Mitchell is a member of the Upland Band Boosters and the West End Family Counseling Agency. He is also a member of the Upland Lions Club.

Teacher pay adjustment creates annual problem

An annual problem got its annual working over at the Chaffey Union High School District Board meeting Monday night -- adjusting teachers' pay to reflect the educational units they have completed during the summer.

Teachers step up to a higher salary when they have completed a given number of accredited units in college, increments of 15 hours, generally.

Associate Supt. Alex McLeish said $25,000 had been budgeted, but that would be slightly insufficient to cover the cost because teachers were granted a raise at the end of last month.

Board member Paul Cushing said contracts were signed as of July 1, and this was a strange time to change the terms.

Supt. Allan G. Smith remarked that teachers' employment actually begins Sept. 1.

McLeish said there was no way out unless the Board changed its policy. Credit and pay could be given only on courses completed by May, McLeish said, but indicated standard practice throughout school districts was to adjust pay after summer courses were completed and certified.

Changing to May wouldn't change the dollar amount too much, McLeish pointed out, because much of the additional courses are taken in prior months and years, and only part in the summer immediately passed.

Trustee William Draper asked a question he often does, "Where is the money coming from?" From the budgeted $25,000 and unappropriated reserves.

McLeish noted that he knew the system was questioned each September, and for that reason he hated to bring it to the board, but there was no other way. "I'm frustrated, too," he said. "But it has to come up every September."

After the discussion, the vote to approve the adjustments was unanimous.

Appraisers recognize Robert D. Nichols

The board of governors of the Society of Real Estate Appraisers has named Robert D. Nichols of Upland a senior residential appraiser.

The Chicago based society pointed out that only one out of five appraisers throughout the country is so honored. Nichols is vice president and chief appraiser for Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

A graduate of Claremont Men's College, Nichols has had 15 years of experience in appraising residential, commercial and industrial properties.

Attainment of the SRA membership designation requires extensive practical appraisal experience and adherence to the society's code of ethics, in addition to the academic requirements.

LOVINGTON, N.M., LEADER: "One of the reasons the U. S. has been stable, prosperous and secure for almost two centuries is that we have taken to heart the spirit of the philosophy of 'government by law and not by men.' We have always been a people who obeyed and respected the law -- at least until recently."

Upland NSU sedan places in races

That NSU sedan from Upland made the sports car racing scene again on Labor Day weekend in Santa Barbara.

Bill Allen raced the Class D family sedan to second in class both Saturday and Sunday on the 2.5 - mile track that has one short straight, one long one, and 10 turns.

The crew left for Santa Barbara the Friday night before the races, and before racing the car, the only thing that had to be done to it was adjust the air pressure in the tires.

Saturday the NSU qualified 14th out of 30 cars, not all small. All sedan classes were run in on race, ranging from Camaro and Mustang to the NSU and Sunbeam Imp.

Sunday, it started in 13th spot and finished second in class and 13th overall.

Allen says the car ran like a clock during the entire weekend.

He averaged 80 miles an hour on those 10 turns and two straights, and hit 100

PERSONAL ATTITUDES toward smoking, as indicated in a study conducted by the Harvard School of Public Health, tend to be formed before boys and girls reach the age of 15. The researchers suggest that programs seeking to discourage and prevent cigarette smoking among teenagers might be more effective if the programs were started before the youths reach that age.

Bill would aid blind

Congressman Jerry L. Pettis, 33rd District of California, has introduced a measure into the House of Representatives which would amend Title II of the Social Security Act to provide disability insurance benefits thereunder for any individual who is blind and has at least one and one-half years of coverage.

"Under existing law, blindness is not sufficient grounds to qualify a person for disability payments, even if this handicap has prevented a person from obtaining a job," Pettis stated. "On the contrary, a person must now be completely unable to work before he becomes eligible for disability insurance benefits."

Pettis added, "Many blind persons who desire work and possess the necessary skills needed for employment are unable to work simply because of the reluctance of employers to hire the blind. When these blind men and women are able to secure work, they all too often find themselves in a short-term position which requires little or no skills. As the turnover on such jobs is rapid, these blind persons are unable to work long enough in Social Security-covered employment to meet the five years of the last ten years eligibility requirement."

The Pettis bill, HR 12568, would liberalize the Federal Disability Insurance Law for blind persons by including in the law the generally accepted definition of blindness. Those persons who meet this definition of visual loss, and who have worked for one and one-half years in Social Security-covered work would then be able to draw disability insurance cash benefits as long as they remain blind, regardless of their earnings.

"As it now stands," said the Congressman, "when a blind person finds employment, he is considered to have demonstrated sufficient physical ability to work, even if his work is trivial and his earnings meager."

"We must recognize we live in a sight-oriented society and that the blind man who is trying to compete with men with ordinary eyesight is under a significant handicap. He is, in fact, disabled and should be eligible for disability payments to offset his diminished earning power and the added expenses his disability forces upon him."

PFF office in Claremont gets okay

The Federal Home Loan Bank has approved an application by Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association to establish a branch office in Claremont.

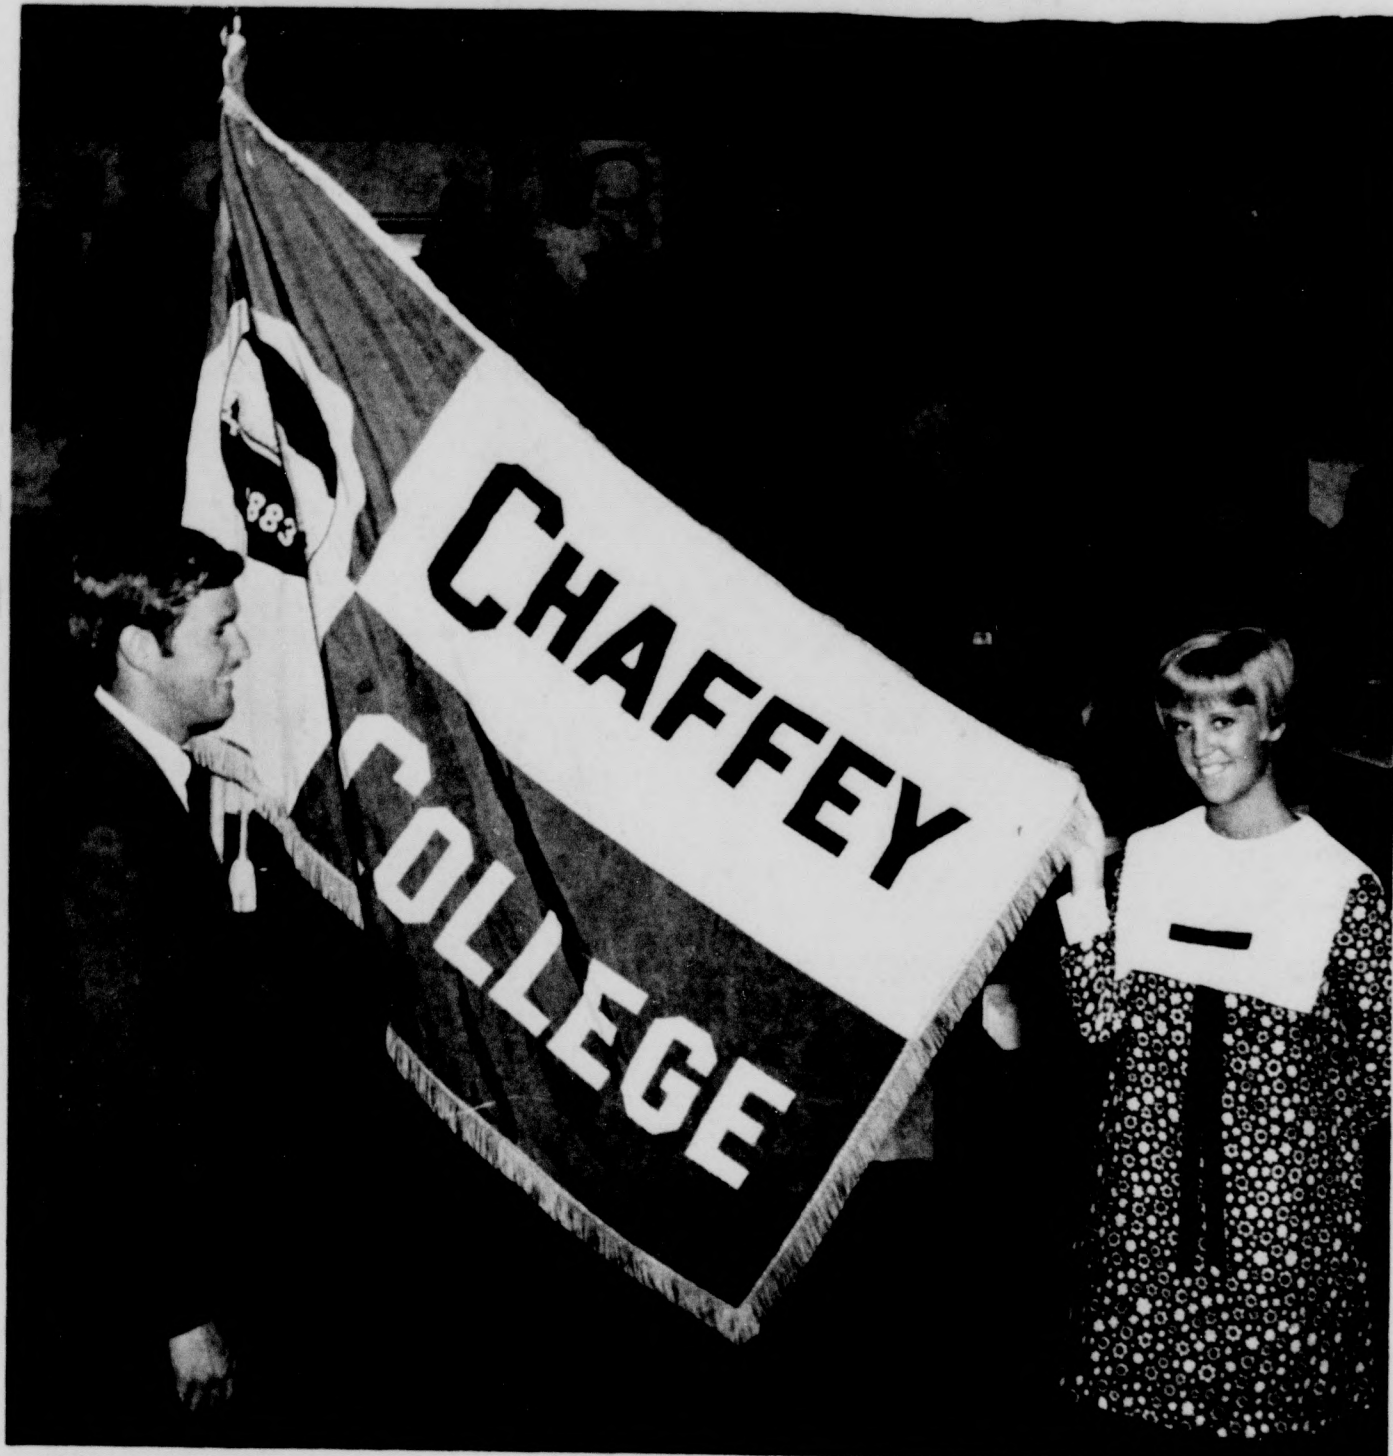

The branch will be the seventh for the locally operated financial institution, in addition to the main office at 399 N. Garey Ave.

Paul D. Walker, president of the association, said the new Claremont branch will be in operation by Jan. 1. He said the office will be located on the north side of Foothill Boulevard near the intersection of Indian Hill Boulevard.

Pomona First Federal Savings, with assets of nearly $190,000,000 including participation in loans with others, now has three offices in Pomona, and one each in Upland, San Dimas, Chino and Yuca Valley. Its Yuca Valley branch, opened only a year ago, now has savings accounts in excess of $2 million.

R.C. seeks paperbacks for Vietnam

Paper back books for the servicemen in Vietnam are being solicited by the local Red Cross Chapter. Volunteers are busy filling Christmas "Ditty Bags" and request residents to deliver any books they may wish to contribute to 209 E. I St., Ontario.

NEW COLORS, NEW STUDENTS--New students get a look at the new Chaffey College flag as they gather for orientation day and the start of a new school year. The flag is displayed by Associated Student Body president Jim Kelber, Upland, and freshman coed Pam Zatzke, Redlands. The red and white flag was a gift from last year's sophomore class. It was designed by Anne Meffan, Ontario, now attending California State College at Long Beach. Miss Meffan spent her vacation taking art and anthropology courses at the University of Arizona and Stanford University summer school at Guadalajara, Mexico.

It's a woman's world--well, almost

More than 120 women currently are employed by General Telephone Company of California as "framemen", a function usually performed by men. The frameman works with hundreds of miles of interconnecting wires in establishing new circuits in telephone switching centers. Female framemen are also working in other telephone operating subsidiaries of General Telephone & Electronics Corporation, including companies in the states of Washington, Texas, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

"The natural attributes of many women -- dexterity, precision, patience -- parallel some of the qualities a frameman needs," said R. Parker Sullivan, President of the California company. "Therefore, it was a logical step to try women in the job."

The lady framemen work in dial switching centers which route telephone calls. They are responsible for connecting thousands of wires on metal racks called "frames". These connections must be made anytime a person orders a new telephone, moves to a new location, has his telephone service changed from a party to a private line or when a repair crew has to re-route customers lines.

The work often involves soldering spaghetti-thin wires at temperatures of 700 degrees F.

The original task force of 35 women has since grown to more than 120 at the California company. The program was first put into operation in the firm's southern area, extending from Long Beach to Downey and eastward into Orange County, and now has been adopted in the company's other operating areas. Six lady framemen, for example, were recently hired in the Santa Monica area.

Many of the women who apply for the frameman's job are already working for the telephone company in clerical positions. The new job means a new challenge and higher pay, but there has been no bowing to femininity on the job.

Some male framemen "are surprised to see us at first," said Judi McClaren, a California company frameman. "But soon we're just part of the group. They say we dress up the place."

Some female framemen report they have trouble keeping their fingernails trimmed and their hands soft and clean. However, one woman frameman with General Telephone Company of the Southwest claimed an unexpected bonus: a slimmer figure from climbing up and down the frame ladders. Women who apply for the frameman's position must take a physical examination.

Aptitude tests also are given to determine if the women possess the natural skills for the job. Then, like the men, they take a two-week training course, which includes instruction in the basic principles of electricity, wiring, and soldering.

Although women are now working in some positions normally filled by men, a number of men are employed in what many consider typical women's jobs. The California company, for example, has 19 young men employed as telephone operators, and male operators also are employed by General System companies in the states of Texas, Illinois and Ohio.

Brazil nuts are easy to slice thin for a cake garnish if you parboil them first for a few minutes, then slice with a vegetable peeler.

CLAIMS ADJUSTING OFFERS MEN AN OPPORTUNITY FOR AN ACTION PACKED CAREER

Join the ranks of professional accident investigators and claims adjusters. Men are needed everywhere. Many positions are available, due to the tremendous increase of auto accidents, fires, robberies, windstorms, riots and industrial mishaps.

22 million insurance claims had to be investigated last year and almost twenty-billion dollars paid by claims men.

In this exciting, top-paying work, there is no threat of automation and no lay-offs. Maturity is an asset and lack of formal education does not close the door as it does in many other fields.

'Starlet Platoon' recruits wanted

The Southern California Starlets Platoon is "full steam ahead", stated Captain Elizabeth Scott Hughes, Woman's Army Corps Recruiting Counselor Los Angeles, U.S. Army Recruiting Main Station.
As released to the press on Aug. 16, 41 U.S. Army Recruiting stations in Southern California are now accepting applications for enlistment in the first Southern California "Starlets" Platoon.
Captain Hughes, surrounded by a battery of typewriters going full speed, said that "personal" letters are going out to all High School Graduates in Southern California, informing them of the new Starlet Platoon Program and how to make application for membership.
Applications are already coming in and all U.S. Army Recruiters in Southern California are vying with each other to insure that their applications from their areas are selected.
Further information regarding enlistment in the "Southern California Starlets" WAC Platoon may be obtained from the local U.S. Army Recruiting Station, as well as Women's Army Corps Career Counselors located at 160 West Third Street, Pomona.

Refund received

The Inland Empire Production Credit Association of Colton has received a patronage refund of $38,326.66 from the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Berkeley distributed in major part in capital stock of the bank and the remainder in allocated reserves of the bank, according to Lloyd L. Yarbrough, manager.

"This is our share of the earnings of the bank resulting from loans made to totaling $528,648,356 during the year ended June 30, 1967," says Yarbrough.

"The bank's earnings are distributed on a patronage basis to the 28 production credit associations and other financing institutions obtaining loans from it; these organizations in turn make loans to farmers and ranchers operating in Arizona, California, Hawaii, Nevada, and Utah.

"The loan volume handled by the bank again set a new high, reflecting the increasing need for funds to meet operating costs in Western agriculture."

These funds, representing a refund of 9.7% of the total interest costs paid by the Inland Empire Production Credit Association for the year, will be used to strengthen the financial position of the association, which is owned and operated by the farmers and ranchers in Riverside and San Bernardino Counties.

Chaffey adds forestry class

A forestry technician program will be initiated at Chaffey College during the fall semester, along with four other study area innovations.

Introduction to Forestry for Technicians will be the first in a series of courses making up a two-year program. This course will entail a weekly one-hour lecture on campus and eight hours of laboratory conducted in adjacent national forests.

The program represents a joint effort by Chaffey College Professor Lloyd Paratt and the U.S. Forestry Service. USFS will implement the program in the field.

Other new programs or courses to be offered when classes opened Monday are:

Architecture Specification Writing and Interpretation, a course of interest to those planning to specialize in this field and of value to contractors and estimators. Instructor: specifications consultant Vern Dreagoux.

Correctional Science Casework, covering methods of interviewing, case preparation and reporting, sources of information, psychological aspects and evaluation techniques. Course will be at Southern Conservation Center, Chino. Instructor: assistant SCC program administrator John Williams.

Correctional Science Work Experience Education, a joint Chaffey College and California State Department of Corrections program to partially finance student internships. The program will be conducted at California Institution for Women and the Southern Conservation Center. Participants will work 15 hours a week at CIF or SCC under college and institutional supervision.

Upland, Ind., has some similarities to Upland

Another Upland, one in Indiana, seems to have some similarities to Upland, Calif., judging from a clipping from the Indianapolis Star, and some marked differences.

It was given to the News by Mrs. Taylor M. Peterson of 856 Orchard Ct., after it had been forwarded to her by her daughter.

Following is the story of Upland, Ind., which is celebrating its 100th anniversary.

By PHILIP F. CLIFFORD
Star Staff Writer

Upland, Ind. - In 1867 Jacob Bugher drew a plat 8 blocks long and 2 1/2 blocks wide, putting Grant County's newest town on the map. Over the last 100 years the geographic boundaries of Upland have changed but little since the days of pioneer Bugher. But the economic structure of the town's fortunes have seenawed.

The main thoroughfare, for the most part, is a tree-lined street flanked by well-kept stately houses. Touches of modern architecture seem to be replacing some of the 19th Century gingerbread facades. But to the east and west of Main Street most of the homes still hold that early Upland look.

ONE IN particular is the two-story, rambling frame home of Mrs. Catherine Shewalter on Washington Street. A wide, semicircular porch supports a similarly shaped roof that wraps itself around the "old tower room."

At the south end, covering about three blocks, is the hub of Upland's business district. You can shift gears and be through the trading area without realizing it.

Upland is a small, quiet town permeated with an air of supreme optimism. And it is perhaps because of this feeling that it has held its own through 100 years of good and bad times.

ON THE EVE of its centennial celebration, which will be observed here Aug. 27 - Sept. 4, Upland is looking toward another, if somewhat modest, shot in its economic muscle.

"The opening of Interstate 69, less than 2 miles out of town, is almost certain to attract new industry," said Mrs. Nancy Gore, editor of The Courier, and secretary of the centennial committee. "More than 40 acres have been set aside for industrial expansion, and with the recent enlargement of our water and sewage facilities, Upland should be able to capture the interest of some industries."

Taking a leisurely stroll down Main Street, you find it difficult to believe that serene Upland of today was once a raucous, bawling boom town that counted 23 saloons along the spine of its merchandising area. UPLAND'S first brush with a robust economy came with the discovery of natural gas late in the last century in much of Grant County. At the peak of its prosperity Upland counted some 5,000 residents.

The new arrivals, working in the gas fields and in the glass factories that sprang up, came from all corners of America and some foreign countries.

During those hectic days, a historian noted, "In the downtown business area on Saturday night it was not unusual to see more than 200 rigs tied up. Businesses opened early and closed late."

WITHIN THE 100-year span of its existence, Upland has had its share of tragedies, disappointments and disasters.

One severe economic blow hit the town when 200 glass blowers were idled when mechanical blowing devices were installed in a glass plant.

In 1899 a storm ripped through the town. One resident was killed, several injured and many of the homes were reduced to rubble.

By 1907 the gas boom, which had brought Upland undreamed-of prosperity, was over. The population shrunk to a mere 1,080 persons.

BUT DESPITE the many adversities Upland has managed to survive to prepare for its centennial.

Although it cannot be considered one of Indiana's industrial giants, Upland is holding its own.

And for at least a week, later this month, Upland's streets will be alive with people dressed much as they were in boom days following the great gas discovery.

Adventist school enrolls 70

Reminders at school street crossings and for lunch items at the corner grocery tell us that it's back to school time across the nation this week.

Seventy of those students from Upland, Ontario, Cucamonga, Alta Loma and other surrounding towns are headed for the newly refreshed Seventh-day Adventist school, 1722 E. 8th St. In operation in the West End since 1924, the educational unit stresses the importance of the student-teacher relationship.

Adding its own fourth dimension to education without support of tax dollars, the local school follows the same curriculum as Upland's public schools -- plus religion, using the Bible as the text book. Teachers are certified by the state as well as by the denomination.

Principal Virgil Easterday points out that in maintaining their own schools Adventists are not criticizing the public school system. "We pay our taxes to maintain public schools as well," he said.

"However, by operating our church-maintained and tuition-free schools, we feel free to add religious instruction and emphasis on Christian living in our democratic society."

This school year will be under the leadership of Harold Lance as schoolboard chairman, Wallace Birdsall as treasurer, Mrs. Carol Bassham secretary, Mrs. Doris Freese bus driver and Jim Darby in charge of the grounds.

Principal Easterday will teach grades 7 and 8, Mrs. Lois Easterday will teach 6th and 7th, Miss Claudia Lindsey, new this year, will teach 3rd and 4th, and Mrs. Nancy Youkers, also new this year, will teach 1st and 2nd.

Business index up

For the fourth successive month Southern California business activity has reached a record level, Security First National Bank reported.

Local activity during August is estimated at 164.7 on the Index of Business Activity compiled by Security Bank's Economic Research Department. Previous readings are July's preliminary mark of 162.6, June's final reading of 160.7 and May's final recording of 157.5.

In August, 1966, the Southern California economy registered at 152.9 on the index. The estimate for last month's activity reflects a year's growth of more than seven percent.

Among index components for which August statistics are available, bank clearings increased most during the month, as they also did during July. The largest monthly bank clearings gains in years have been recorded during the past two months, it was reported.

Construction activity also increased during August, while department store sales and real estate activity remained near July levels.

Approximately 4,567,000 civilians were employed in Southern California metropolitan areas during July, the latest month for which figures are available. Employment declined by about 4,000 jobholders from June's all-time record number but remained at a high level, better than that of July, 1966, by 128,000 workers or 2.9 percent. Nationally, the comparable increase was 2.1 percent.

Unemployment in Southern California metropolitan areas, on a seasonally adjusted basis, averaged at 4.9% of the total civilian labor force in July. The local rate rose fractionally from that of June and that of a year ago, while the national rate for last July, 3.9%, declined slightly from June and remained the same as a year ago.

West Bros. Circus Comes To Cucamonga

Daring aerial artists... the roar of wild animals...jesting clowns...peanuts, popcorn and cotton candy...were on hand Friday to greet residents of the West End at a one-day performance of the West Bros.

Circus sponsored by the Upland American Legion Post 73. The two-hour circus was presented at E. Foothill Boulevard and Archibald Avenue, Cucamonga. Spokesmen for the West Bros. Circus said that all the allurement of "circus days" were found in their new 1967 program. Heading the list of acts were Hillary's Flying Trapeze, Allen's Bears, Dedrick's Ponies, Helmore one-finger stand, juggler Danny Rees, clowns, dogs and trampoline acts.

Square dance club note season

Foot 'N' Fiddle will host a back-to-school dance on Sat. Sept. 16. Members and guests are to wear kiddie costumes. The best "kiddie" will be awarded a prize.

Decorations and refreshments will follow the theme of school days. Mr. and Mrs. John Kirk are in charge of refreshments, and Mr. and Mrs. James Vertick and Miss Jean Booth will decorate the hall.

Club members and their children had a picnic recently, which was arranged by the Program chairman Mr. and Mrs. Don Beeson. The club is sponsoring a beginners square dance class with "Smitty" Smith as instructor.

Foot 'N' Fiddle dances at the American Legion Hall, 1550 Bonita, in La Verne. Dances are from 8 to 11:30 on the first and third Saturdays of the month, and all square dancers are welcome.

County Head Start assigned new man

Eugene Everett Kirkland, a former history teacher at Dunbar Senior High School located in the lower socioeconomic area of Washington, D.C. and a former employee of the Federal Government in the Post Office and the Labor Department, has been assigned to the position of assistant project coordinator of the Head Start program in San Bernardino County.

The announcement was made by Harold D. Whitehead, executive director of the Dependency Prevention Commission which administers and coordinates all anti-poverty programs in the County.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Kirkland, 33, lived in the area of the nation's capital since 1939. He received his Bachelor degree from American University majoring in history and in 1967 received his Master degree from Howard University.

In the summer of 1965 Kirkland was employed as a supervisor with the Neighborhood Youth Corps in Washington and in 1966 he attended a summer institute concerning problems for disadvantaged youth.

He served in the U. S. Army as a member of the Medical Corps. His wife, Medessa, is a psychiatric social worker.

As assistant project coordinator, Kirkland will determine if delegate agencies are complying with the program as approved by the Office of Economic Opportunity.

He will also coordinate health, psychological and social services for Head Start and will be responsible for liaison of the Head Start Program with business, professional and service organizations.

VCT opens 21st season

Valley Community Theater, Pomona Valley's oldest community theater which was incorporated in 1947 and has been presenting plays continuously for the past 20 years, has opened its 21st Season with "Come Blow Your Horn" a fresh and delightful three act comedy by Neil Simon.

The play which revolves around an eastern business man and his two differently oriented sons, a 33 year old playboy, and a 21 year old with an urge to assert himself, is directed by Thurman Brown.

The play will continue its run on Fridays and Saturdays through Sept. 30. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Depositors' aid asked in automation change

Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association has asked its depositors for help in a changeover to a fully computerized service as soon as possible.

Paul D. Walker, president of the association, urged the depositors to stop in at the association's offices and present their pass books so that all accounts can be updated and changed over to the program of the new computer.

Walker explained that until the changeover is completed, the association is forced to operate both the new and the old system. The savings and loan president said about 100,000 accounts -- 60,000 at the Pomona association's seven offices, and 40,000 at the offices of the Santa Fe Federal Savings and Loan Association of San Bernardino -- are involved in the changeover.

Walker said that in addition to the two financial institutions, at least five other associations already have asked for tie-ins to the IBM 360 computer, operated by the Data Line Service Co., a joint venture of the Pomona and the Santa Fe Associations. The five are located in Hemet, Redlands, Covina, Whittier, and Upland.

Four more organizations, in Dallas, Tex., in San Diego, in Cleveland, and in Portland, Ore., also have shown interest in purchasing the Data Line programs used in the computer, he added.

Testing of the program, which began last June, will continue until the end of the year, Walker said, but already the new system is providing faster and smoother teller service wherever it's in use.

Pomona First Federal and Santa Fe are now using about 30 per cent of the capacity of the computer. When the six additional associations join the service, the number of customers will go from 100,000 to 200,000.

Walker said that with the eight companies participating, the computer will service accounts estimated to be worth $500,000,000.

Total investment in the program by Data Line Service Co. up to July 1 is in excess of $90,000.

Slo-pitch league may be formed

The Upland Recreation Department will sponsor a fall slo-pitch league if sufficient interest is shown.

The league would begin the latter part of September and continue through November. Games would be played evenings and nights during the week.

An organizational meeting will be held Monday, Sept. 18, 7 p.m., at the Community Building located in Upland Memorial Park.

Individuals or teams from any town or area interested in entering the league must be represented at the meeting. Entry fee and nights of play will be determined by the number of teams participating.

Trout bag limit set

A bag limit of five trout but not more than 10 pounds and one trout, went into effect in the counties of Orange and San Diego on Monday, and will continue through Feb. 24, the Department of Fish and Game reminded today.

In the rest of Southern California the current 10-trout limit continues through Oct. 31, with the winter limit of five trout applying Nov. 1 through April 28.

An exception is the Colorado River-Salton Sea area where the 10-trout limit applies all year.

Since there are other Southland waters with special seasons and limits, the DFG advises anglers to check such variances in the 1967 California Sport Fishing Regulations.

Board approves $1,500 recreation expenditure

An agreement to spend $1,500 in community service funds in the County Service Area 50 territory for recreation purposes was approved Monday night by the Chaffey Union High School District Board.

A community service tax is levied by the High School District to help pay for facilities, particularly custodial and groundsmen's salaries, for school properties used by the community in non-school connected pursuits.

Biggest item for the schools is recreation, and that is what Service Area 50 was organized for, a recreation program that began last summer.

Ontario is accorded $3,500, at Chaffey and the new Ontario high schools, Montclair and Upland are listed at $2,000 each.

A stipulation was put into the agreement that the $1, 500 would be spent for salaries only, a provision that is followed in the case of the city-school joint use.

Business Manager Milo Thomas said that the District policy was to provide facilities and personnel in connection with recreation programs, and not to get involved in equipment, the reason behind the salary only stipulation.

The $1,500 is included in the 1967-68 budget, but the agreement is a necessary prerequisite to the actual expenditure.

Big washing, big bill

It takes a lot of towels to keep the physical education and athletic programs going at the five high schools in the Chaffey Union High School District, and at 2.5

cents per towel the laundry bill doesn't sound too big. Monday night the CUHS board of Trustees awarded Southern Service the contract for laundering those towels--all 6,500 of them that are needed each school day.

Towels are laundered and bagged for 2.45 cents each and for 2.5 they are folded.

Quite a laundry bill when 6,500 towels per day are multiplied by the 175 school days, times the 2.5 cents per towel, whopping 1,137,500 towels used and washed, and at 2.5 cents each, $28,437.50, more or less.

(The statistical editor fudged just a little, not knowing how many towels were bagged, not folded at 2.45 cents each, and besides, the 2.5 cents was easier to figure.)

Welding shop hearing set

Ralph G. Ayala has filed an application with the County Planning Commission requesting approval of the establishment of a welding shop on land located on the north side of Arrow Highway, approximately 1267 feet west of Central Ave., west of Upland and north of Montclair.

The matter has been set for public hearing before the County Planning Commission on Thursday, Sept. 21, at 2 p.m., in the chambers, 316 Mt. View, San Bernardino.

Any persons owning property affected by the proceedings may appear and be heard in support of or in opposition to said proposal at the time of the hearing.

County gets $382,500 trailer tax

State Controller Houston I. Flournoy announced the semi-annual apportionment of $6,608,745.46 among counties, cities, and school districts of trailer coach fees for the first six months of 1967.

San Bernardino County's share was $382,515.06.

The Vehicle License Fee law provides that license fees be paid on all trailer coaches registered in California, and provides for semi-annual apportionment of the revenue therefrom, to the counties on the basis of the registered addresses of the vehicles. Apportionments are made as soon as possible after the registration data is made available to us by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

The County Auditor then distributes the total equally between the county, city (if the address is within a city) and the school districts in which each trailer is situated.

HEATLAMP--sort of. It's no floor lamp. Actually that lamp being carried out by Jerry Twellman of Southern Counties Gas Co. is an antique gas heater that used to be used in the front office of the Upland News-Cucamonga Times-Montclair Tribune plant. The Gas company has wanted it for years, because even the gas people hadn't seen anything like it. Such unvented gas heaters are illegal, and not really too efficient, either. The antique will, among other things, be used to help warn gas men to be on the lookout for such odd, dangerous heaters when they are trained in their work at downtown Los Angeles headquarters.
